

Primary Actors and Goals

Users	Goals
Human players	Able to choose how many other players to involve, choose between three difficulty levels for the computers strategy, option to save the current state of the game, able to resume at that point later on, enable or disable hints, and change color theme.
Computer players	To play against a human player, follow a particular strategy to try and beat the player.